transformative opportunity it provides to a large and diverse student body; its public mission and commitment to equity and social justice; and its roots in the California experience, animated by such values as innovation, questioning the status quo, and respect for the environment and nature. Since its founding in 1868, Berkeley has fueled a perpetual renaissance, generating unparalleled intellectual, economic and social value in California, the United States and the world.

We are looking for equity-minded applicants who represent the full diversity of California and who demonstrate a sensitivity to and understanding of the diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation, and ethnic backgrounds present in our community. When you join the team at Berkeley, you can expect to be part of an inclusive, innovative and equity-focused community that approaches higher education as a matter of social justice that requires broad collaboration among faculty, staff, students and community partners. In deciding whether to apply for a position at Berkeley, you are strongly encouraged to consider whether your values align with our Guiding Values and Principles, our Principles of Community, and our Strategic Plan.

At UC Berkeley, we believe that learning is a fundamental part of working, and our goal is for everyone on the Berkeley campus to feel supported and equipped to realize their full potential. We actively support this by providing all of our staff employees with up to 80 hours (10 days) of paid time per year to engage in professional development activities. Departmental Overview

UC Berkeley University Health Services (UHS) is a fully accredited, comprehensive campus-based health center providing primary and urgent medical care, counseling and psychological services, ancillary services such as radiology, pharmacy and laboratory, and innovative health promotion programs for students, faculty, and staff. UHS maintains on-campus medical and mental health care at main clinics located within the Tang Center and two satellite clinics for intercollegiate athletics (IA) through Cal Sports Medicine at Simpson Center and Haas Pavilion; off-campus care is coordinated by clinics through a referral process within a network of community specialists and hospitals. In addition, UHS administers a major medical insurance plan, Student Health Insurance, for the general student population, as well as third-party plans for intercollegiate athletes.

Cal Sports Medicine is a joint unit between UHS and the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, health care for Cal varsity athletes is provided at the main clinics at the Tang Center and clinics located at the Simpson Center/Cal Memorial Stadium and Haas Pavilion. Cal Athletics sponsors 30 varsity sports programs which include more than 850 student-athletes who participate in the various sports programs

Salary & Benefits

For information on the comprehensive benefits package offered by the University, please visit the University of California's Compensation & Benefits website.

Under California law, the University of California, Berkeley is required to provide a reasonable estimate of the compensation range for this role and should not offer a salary outside of the range posted in this job announcement. This range takes into account the wide range of factors that are considered in making compensation decisions including but not limited to experience, skills, knowledge, abilities, education, licensure and certifications, analysis of internal equity, and other business and organizational needs. It is not typical for an individual to be offered a salary at or near the top of the range for a position. Salary offers are determined based on final candidate qualifications and experience.

- The budgeted salary or hourly range that the University reasonably expects to pay for this position is $41.75 (Step 1) to $46.17 (Step 6).
- This is a 60-100% full-time (24-40 hrs a week) non-exempt career position, which is paid hourly and eligible for full UC Benefits.
- Please note: The posted salary range is calculated at 100% time and will be prorated per the final schedule at the offer stage.

How to Apply

To apply, please submit your resume and cover letter.

Other Information

- Your employment is dependent on obtaining and maintaining a credentialing clearance (if applicable), background clearance and medical clearance according to University Health Service policies.
