Job Description

UB School of Nursing is seeking tenure-track assistant professors or tenured associate or full professors to contribute to our growing and exciting research and education programs. The current programs of research in the School of Nursing include: promoting health, addictions, health disparities among vulnerable populations (racial, ethnic minorities; African immigrants, LGBTQ+), risk behaviors in adolescence, oncology, sleep, palliative care, informatics and care transitions. We welcome other programs of research to expand our current capacity. Highly competitive compensation and benefit packages commensurate with experience and qualifications are available. Inter-professional clinical and research program opportunities are readily available at UB.

We are particularly looking for candidates who can operate effectively in a diverse community of students and faculty and share our vision of helping all constituents reach their full potential. We are
