The responsibilities of the position are to pursue research and teach undergraduate and graduate courses, including biostatistics.

With about 38,000 students, UNT is the largest university in Dallas-Fort Worth and the 33rd largest in the nation. We offer 101 bachelor's degrees, 82 master's degrees, and 38 doctoral degrees, many nationally and internationally recognized. UNT is a student-focused public research university and is the flagship of the UNT System. The Department of Mathematics has 34 faculty members and about 60 graduate students, and the Department of Biological Sciences has 50 faculty members and about 200 graduate students. Both departments offer degrees through the Ph.D. Further information may be found at <http://www.math.unt.edu> and <https://biology.unt.edu>.

The University of North Texas System is firmly committed to equal opportunity and does not permit - and takes actions to prevent - discrimination, harassment (including sexual violence), and retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, family status, genetic information, citizenship or veteran status in its application and admission processes, educational programs and activities, facilities, and employment practices. The University of North Texas System immediately investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate.

The University of North Texas System also takes actions to prevent retaliation against individuals who oppose a discriminatory practice, file a charge, or testify, assist or participate in an investigative proceeding or hearing. The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. at the time of appointment.
