Appointment: Full-time, tenure track position; rank appointment at assistant professor; or earned academic rank considered.

Responsibilities: We are seeking a doctorally-prepared occupational therapist to teach in our entry level MSOT and OTD occupational therapy programs. Teaching in our post-professional clinical doctorate (DrOT) program may be included, depending on the interest and expertise of the successful candidate.

Primary expertise desired in neuroscience, OT intervention and ideally low vision.

The mission of the School of Occupational Therapy is to prepare culturally sensitive graduates who provide client-centered, evidence and theory informed occupational therapy to diverse individuals, groups, and populations: enhancing clients' participation in meaningful, everyday activities. Graduates use critical analysis of theory and multiple sources of evidence to make sound professional judgments resulting in science-based and creative solutions to the challenges of professional practice.

As such, we seek applicants who value experiential learning and have a strong grounding in the use of occupation-based theory to guide the occupational therapy process. Interest in and experience with assessment/measurement, research and evidence-based practice will ensure that the right candidate will be successful teaching and mentoring students in our programs.

Previous experience teaching in an established entry-level OTD program and mentoring doctoral capstone projects would also be highly valued.

Standard teaching assignment is three units per semester and may include instruction in our student-led clinic. Other duties include continuation of scholarly work; advising students; supervision of student (MSOT and OTD) collaborative evidence projects, doctoral capstone projects, and post-professional doctoral research projects (on the years we have a DrOT cohort); participation in the admissions process, and participation in department and university governance.

Qualifications: PhD (or equivalent research doctorate), five or more years of professional clinical experience and a commitment to liberal arts education. Candidates who are near completion of a research doctorate will be considered. Candidates must have or qualify for a Washington State Occupational Therapist license. Teaching, research experience, and an established record of scholarly activities are desirable.

Application Deadline: Interested individuals are encouraged to submit application materials no later than July 9, 2021 to ensure consideration. To apply, please submit the required documents outlined

About Puget Sound:

The mission of the University of Puget Sound is to develop in its students the capacities for critical analysis, aesthetic appreciation, sound judgment, and apt expression that will sustain a lifetime of intellectual curiosity, active inquiry, and reasoned independence. Puget Sound is a 2,600-student, residential, national undergraduate liberal arts college in Tacoma, Washington, drawing students from virtually every state and several countries. 65% of students live on the 97 acre campus and the remainder typically live within a mile in the surrounding neighborhood. A low student-faculty ratio provides students with personal attention from faculty members who have a strong commitment to teaching. The university offers 1,200 courses in more than 50 areas of study, numerous experiential learning opportunities, 23 D-III varsity sports, and extensive co-curricular and leadership opportunities. Puget Sound graduates include Rhodes and Fulbright scholars, notables in the arts and culture, entrepreneurs and elected officials, and leaders in business and finance locally and throughout the world. In 2012, Puget Sound was named as one of 40 schools in Colleges that Change Lives.

Puget Sound has a well-established Shared Faculty Appointments Policy,
