To continue to advance our support infrastructure for CoSW, we invite applicants for one year (12-month), non-tenure eligible, visiting faculty positions at the Assistant, Associate, or Professor rank in the clinical setting to begin as early as Spring 2024.

Primary duties associated with this position involve provision of instruction, training, and advisement for students with a DOE expected of 100% assigned to teaching representing a 4-4-3 teaching load (four courses in the fall and spring semesters and three in the summer). The position will teach across academic programs housed in the College of Social Work including undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral programs in social work and undergraduate and graduate programs in criminal justice. In addition, this position will be responsible for curriculum development for graduate-level programming. Successful applicants will have experience teaching at the university level and demonstrated ability to effectively participate in scholarly activities.

The University's mission involves three primary functions: instruction, research, and service. Each year, faculty work with the Office of the Dean to delineate their distribution of effort (DOE). This DOE outlines how faculty will spend their time. Of course, the DOE can fluctuate depending on an array of factors (e.g., clinical funding, new course development, etc.). Application reviews will begin immediately and continue until the position has been filled.

Applicants are requested to submit a curriculum vitae, a letter of interest detailing applicant's goodness of fit for the position, and a brief description of relevant teaching experience (upload as Specific Request #1).
