Job Description

Physical Therapy Consultant

The Musculoskeletal Control and Dynamics Lab is studying how older adults (and other populations) balance during walking and turning while walking tasks. We are also developing and evaluating sound and music-based balance biofeedback. We are hiring NJ-Licensed Physical Therapist consultants to evaluate balance, sensorimotor organization, and cognition and to provide standby and contact guard assistance during biomechanics data collections. The Physical Therapist consultants may also assist in research participant recruitment. Hourly compensation is competitive and based on level of experience.
