Job Description

ABOUT VINUNIVERSITY

VinUniversity (VinUni: <https://vinuni.edu.vn/>) is a private, not-for-profit Vietnamese university established based on international standards. The university integrates the models of excellent international universities with the unique cultural and economic characteristics of Vietnam, to make a breakthrough in Vietnamese higher education and to become a world-class university.

VinUniversity has strategic collaborations with the world's leading universities, including Cornell University and the University of Pennsylvania. These universities have become close advisors and crucial enablers in establishing the four colleges at VinUniversity: College of Arts and Sciences, College of Business and Management, College of Engineering and Computer Science, and College of Health Sciences. Every aspect of the University: its curricula, research, faculty, student body, facilities, and campus life, is being developed to meet the highest standards set by the world's leading accrediting and ranking organizations, such as ABET, AACSB, Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) and Times Higher Education (THE). VinUniversity's founding benefactor, Vingroup, is one of the biggest private conglomerates in Asia with the largest market capitalization value in Vietnam. As a multisector corporation, Vingroup focuses on three main areas: Technology; Industry; and Property Services. VinUniversity is proud to be a part of the Vingroup ecosystem, giving its students opportunities to connect with several high-quality research institutes (such as VinAI, and VinBigData), pioneering industrial enterprises (such as VinFast), and leading Vietnamese companies (such as Vinpearl, Vinmec, and Vinhomes).

collaborating with leaders and faculty in all the VinUni CHS training programs and affiliated teaching sites to create a strategic vision for faculty development and for the design and implementation of faculty development programs that promote the success of all training programs.

The incumbent should have extensive experience in health professions education, preferably with leadership roles overseeing faculty development. This role will report directly to the Dean of CHS and will be 1.0 FTE.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assess needs, define priorities, and provide strategic vision and leadership for new and ongoing faculty development initiatives, particularly as related to the teaching, mentoring, and assessment skills of the VinUni CHS full-time and affiliated/adjunct faculty.
- Build on the existing faculty development courses to develop a series of additional faculty development workshops for faculty at BN/UME/GME levels with emphases on the following skills: mentoring, clinical teaching, completing evaluations, research, leadership, feedback, classroom management, and professionalism.
- Implement a faculty evaluation and feedback program (e.g. CFAP), including directly observed feedback.
- Be a core member of the Medical Education Unit within CHS, which is responsible for producing health professions education research and dissemination.
- Develop a Faculty Mentoring Program to foster career progression of VinUni CHS and affiliated faculty.
- Oversee a process to collect, capture and report accurate faculty evaluation data.
- Develop and continuously refine strategy for enhancing faculty engagement at VinUni CHS especially adjunct and affiliated faculty.
- Work collaboratively with departments, centers, and committees within the medical school to integrate faculty development initiatives across the institution.
- Promote diversity, equity, and inclusion in all faculty development activities, ensuring that programs are accessible and beneficial to a diverse faculty body.
- Encourage and support faculty scholarship in medical education and faculty development. Lead and contribute to research projects on effective faculty development practices.
- Serve as a key advisor to CHS senior leadership on issues related to faculty development.
- Develop an analytic plan that enables rigorous evaluation of the impact of these initiatives, with measurable outcomes.
- Identify and mentor junior medical education leaders who can take over faculty development roles/duties within 1 to 3 years.
