The successful candidate will contribute to the teaching, scholarship and service mission of the program. Duties may include:

- Teaching lecture and laboratory courses
- Mentoring students in research projects
- Advising students and contributing to ongoing curriculum quality improvement.
- Knowledge of higher education and contemporary clinical practice are essential along with research experience and excellent communication skills.

The Department of Rehabilitation Science at UB has a longstanding history of excellence in clinical education in programs leading to the Doctor of Physical Therapy, the BS/MS in Occupational Therapy, and the PhD in Rehabilitation Science, with a post professional OTD program in development. The PT and OT entry-level programs have enjoyed continuous accreditation for more than 70 years. The OT program is highly competitive with a class-size of approximately 40-50 students, and received a full 10-year accreditation from ACOTE in 2017.
