at Tufts University. The department is a collaborative and close-knit learning community. Faculty, staff, and students use a reflective process to identify and understand occupational performance and well-being to develop inclusive innovative approaches that support meaningful engagement across the lifespan.

Tufts is a teaching and research-intensive R1 university with a rigorous intellectual culture and established ties to the surrounding communities. The school offers students and faculty alike in-depth educational and community-engaged learning experiences and opportunities to explore interdisciplinary approaches to teaching, learning, and scholarship.

Qualifications

Applicants must have a post-professional clinical or research doctorate (e.g., OTD, DPT, EdD, ScD, PhD). For occupational therapists, national certification as an occupational therapist and ability to qualify for Massachusetts state licensure is preferred, though not required. Additionally, applicants should have 5 or more years of practice experience and demonstrated clinical, community, and/or academic teaching experience in their area of expertise.

Application Instructions

All application materials must be submitted via Interfolio at apply.interfolio.com/156810. Applicants should submit a cover letter, CV, and a teaching statement highlighting relevant experience, interests, and philosophy. Three confidential letters of recommendation are required. Letters of recommendation should be addressed to Jessica Harney, Chair of the Department of Occupational Therapy, and be submitted directly to Interfolio by the recommenders. Note that our department is committed to diversity, equity, inclusion, and justice and candidates' materials should address how they will promote these priorities in their professional career.

All offers of employment are contingent upon the completion of a background check.
