Job Description

The Department of Biotechnical and Clinical Laboratory Sciences \(BCLS\) at the University at Buffalo (UB) is seeking outstanding applicants for a full-time (12-month) Clinical Instructor position. The BCLS is expanding opportunities for students to develop hands-on laboratory skills and gain practical experience in on-campus, local & national internships and research placements that will lead to employment or advanced training in the STEM and healthcare fields. Successful applicants will complement existing strengths in the department.

The candidates should have knowledge of or experience teaching lab courses. The Clinical Instructor will have various laboratory-related responsibilities, including, but not limited to, teaching lab courses, organizing and maintaining laboratory equipment for teaching labs, preparing lab environments, and facilitating student participation in learning activities with faculty.
