being to develop inclusive innovative approaches that support meaningful engagement across the lifespan.

Tufts is a teaching and research-intensive R1 university with a rigorous intellectual culture and established ties to the surrounding communities. The school offers students and faculty alike in-depth educational and community-engaged learning experiences and opportunities to explore interdisciplinary approaches to teaching, learning, and scholarship.

Applicants must have a master's degree in occupational therapy. A doctoral degree and college level teaching experience are preferred.

Application Instructions

Applicants need to submit a letter of interest and CV via Interfolio at apply.interfolio.com/169548. Note that our department is committed to diversity, equity, inclusion, and justice and candidates' materials should address how they will promote these priorities in their professional career.

For questions about the position, please contact Uma Patel (uma.patel@tufts.edu), Senior Department Administrator. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the positions are filled.

All offers of employment are contingent upon the completion of a background check.
