nutrition programs, quantity food production, connections between food and health, food systems, food science and cultural foods.

This position will also oversee the management of the foods laboratories, serve as the liaison with Linn Benton Community College (LBCC) in the OSU/LBCC shared Nutrition in Foodservice degree, Culinary track, and contribute to the mission of the Moore Family Center for Whole Grain Foods, Nutrition and Preventive Health.

This highly collaborative position will work within all aligned OSU and community programs and will have a critical role in fulfillment of program accreditation requirements and the preparation of undergraduate and graduate students for careers in food and nutrition.

EEO/AA Policy

Oregon State University, as an institution of higher education and as a community of scholars, is committed to eliminating discrimination and providing equal opportunity in education and employment.

Oregon State University, in compliance with state and federal laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability status or protected veteran status(including disabled veterans, armed Forces service medal veterans, recently separated veterans, and active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans) in any of its policies, procedures, or practices. This nondiscrimination policy applies to admission and access to, and treatment and employment in, University programs and activities, including but not limited to academic admissions, financial aid, educational services, and employment.

Oregon State University's employment policies are designed to ensure that all applicants receive fair consideration for employment and that employees are treated equitably. The university takes affirmative steps to 1) recruit, hire, train, and promote persons in all job titles, without regard to age, race, color, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, sex (except where sex is a bona fide occupational qualification) , disability, or protected veteran status; 2) provide reasonable accommodations; 3) base employment and promotional opportunity decisions on valid requirements; and 4) ensure that all personnel actions such as compensation, benefits, transfers, layoffs, returns from layoff, OSU sponsored training, education, tuition
