Cougar Connections Center of Social Work (CCCSW)

Lead Social Worker

Reporting to the Associate Director of Social Work, the Lead Social Worker (Professional Services Specialist 2) for Cougar Connections Center of Social Work will support the mission and vision of the department and university by assisting at-risk traditional and nontraditional students with issues that impact their well-being and academic success through comprehensive assessments and case management support. They will be a part of a team assisting Kean University students in obtaining resources that will improve their daily life and student experience. The Lead Social Worker will connect students with campus and community resources that assist with solving social, economic, emotional and behavioral challenges.

The Lead Social Worker is expected to write grants in coordination with off campus organizations to expand resources to students and the university community. The Lead Social Worker will also develop and implement evidenced based workshops that will promote well-being initiatives; participate in onboarding new team members and facilitate training sessions on office protocols, procedures and expectations; will be responsible for supervising undergraduate and graduate level interns, as well as student assistants and part-time support staff; and will perform related work as required.

This position requires travel and a flexible schedule including evening and weekend hours. This is not a remote position and requires physical presence on campus as determined by the Associate Director. It requires working on campus and interacting directly with students, faculty, staff and key stakeholders on and off campus.
